TRAIN PROLETARIANS AS JURISTS;
SOVIET ZONE UNIVERSITY TEACHES AMERICAN CULTURE

Fifty-four percent of the judges and government attorneys in the Soviet Zone Germany are proletarians and were appointed to their offices following brief training.

Professor Dr Georg Kartske has been appointed Professor of American Culture on the philosophical faculty [of the University of Berlin?] in the Soviet Sector of Berlin.

Residence permits have been declared superfluous nearly everywhere in the Soviet Zone Germany.

In the future, proof of trade or occupation will be considered adequate in the case of persons wishing to change localities.

The Council of Ministers of the German Democratic Republic has appointed Gustav Sobotta, director of the Main Administration for Coal (a division of the German Economic Commission), to the post of commercial attache to the Diplomatic Mission in Moscow.
